608. SHRI PRAGADA KOTAIAH : Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state :

(a) whether a delegation of Members of Parliament of both the Houses met the Prime Minister on 17th March, 1992 and submitted a memorandum to protect the handloom industry;

(b) what are the main requests made in the memorandum; and

(c) what decisions have been taken thereon to help handloom industry in distress ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI ASHOK GEHLOT) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Main points in the Memorandum were :—

(i) Inclusion of the Handlooms (Reservation of Articles for Production) Act, 1985 in the IX Schedule of the Constitution.

(ii) Strict enforcement of hank yarn obligation order through a statute to be enacted for this purpose.

(iii) Distribution of hank yarn to handloom weavers at stable and reasonable rates through National Handloom Development Corporation and State Apex Corporatives and Corporations.

(iv) Reomval of cost handicap of the handlooms vis-a-vis powerlooms by suitable fiscal measures.

(c) A statement is attached.

Statement

(i) Government of India should be ready to move the Constitutional Amendment Bill for inclusion of the Handloom (Reservation of Articles for Production) Act, 1985 in the IXth Schedule of the Constitution immediately after and depending on the judgement in the matter by the Supreme Court. Concerned Ministries and Departments of Government of India should take all necessary action to seek an early listing of the case in the Supreme Court.

(ii) All efforts may be made to see the enforcement of Hank Yarn Obligation Order.

(iii) National Handloom Development Corporation (NHDC) shall augment the yarn supply operations. National Textile Corporation (NTC) shall augment production of hank yarn specially of counts 40s and below. State Governments have been requested to constitute State Level Committee for monitoring yarn prices, its production and pricing by mills under the State control and its distribution through State Level Corporations and Apex Cooperatives. Government has also reviewed its policy of export of cotton yarn with a view to stabilise prices in the country. It has also been decided to import 2 lakh bales of cotton for conversion into hank yarn for distribution to handloom weavers at reduced rates. Decision has also been taken to import silk yarn to bring about moderation in silk yarn prices in the country.

(iv) Existing fiscal measures to increase the competitiveness of the handlooms include complete exemption from excise duty of plain reel hank yarn, concession in excise duty on double cross reeled hank yarn for registered hondloom cooperative socities and State level Corporations. Fiscal measures also include complete or partial concession in duties on processing of fabrics made on handlooms. In the new budget, fiscal concessions have been given to facilitate reeling of yarn into hank form outside the mill premises.
